Homecoming 1993

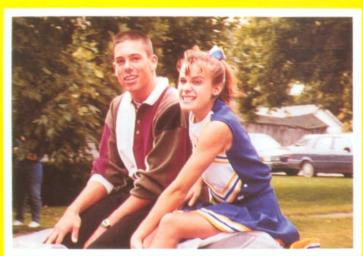

Homecoming 1993 at Maroa-Forsyth. Where else could you find students wearing wild shades, weird hats, funky hairstyles, and fake beards, all in one week? The excitement started with a flaming bonfire and didn't end until the football team blazed past Warrensburg. In between, we saw some of the funniest costumes and most spirited classes ever to roam the school. And while the days have slipped away, the memory of Homecoming 1993 still burns as bright as that bonfire.

Mr. Dale

Goodbye Mrs. Johnson

Sharon L. Hilt Johnson Director of Choral Music Maroa-Forsyth High School, 1970-1994

Although she began her teaching career teaching band in Forsyth, Missouri, Mrs. Johnson has made herself a regular fixture at Maroa-Forsyth for the last twenty-four years. Her Christmas concerts have become the stuff of legend and we all will sorely miss such an excellent choral director. Mrs. Johnson, we wish you well.

Farewell

This year's 1993 volleyball teams lived up to many expectations. With many hours of practice, the varsity girls successfully finished with an 18-3 record, not to mention, our JV team, holding a great record of 19-5.

Volleyball

Varsity team members are proud of successfully and somewhat suprisingly defeating top-ranked Mahomet-Seymore, which earned them the title of 1993 Regional Champions (3-0)! They also pride themselves on being the Central A&M Invite Champs (2-0), receiving 3rd place in Bomber Invitational (2-1), and holding a 5-3 conference record, which made them Meridian Conference runnerups.

JV team members are most proud of being champions of Maroa's very own Frosh-Soph Tourney (4-1). This has only been done one other time in school history! They also boast of being Warrensburg Frosh Champs (2-0), receiving 3rd place in Clinton Classic (3-2) and holding a conference record of 7-1.

Varsity standout, Jill Stenger, was named 1993 MVP. Jill was also a Trojan team captain, along with senior Kim Cook. JV player Kristen Mortensen showed success with best serving percent and Taryn McLaughlin was named most improved.

All of the 1993 team members contributed their all for excellence and gave themselves and us, the fans, much pride.

The Trojans had a 6-3 season. It was a good season, but we were disappointed we didn't make the playoffs. The kids worked hard all year long and are looking for bigger and better things next year. We would like to thank the Seniors for their leadership and for four good years. They will be greatly missed next season.

This year the squad started out the year with a lot of practice. The week of Homecoming they practiced everyday and the rest of the year they met three to five days a week.

The squad was full of pep and showed their spirit throughout the year in every way they could. A few examples are preparing spaghetti dinners for the football players, having locker pals, and preparing run-throughs.

Some major thrills were being able to cheer at basketball regionals and sectionals.

The cheerleaders are proud of Jill Agee for having the opportunity to go to London, England where she cheered in the New Year's Day Parade.

We had a great sounding chorus this year. I will never forget our final Christmas Program "Mrs. J's Christmas Memories". Thanks to all of you for being such a help and putting your "all" into it. I've never done a "last" Christmas Program before so it was a little difficult.

I think we all learned a lot this year. I know I did. I'll always remember the many, many fine singers in this group. It really showed in the Spring Concert. I'll never forget the great music that we did and the Chopper. We have always been an excellent group especially with the crowded schedule in a small school. Good Luck to all of you and keep singing! I'll miss you! Mrs. J

The Maroa - Forsyth Showchoir was a very unique group this year. Although the smallest in number that we have ever had, they came through with flying colors when we needed them.

Our biggest performance was at Richland Community College. It was as very important meeting involving educators and business technicians from all over central Illinois. We were the entertainment for the main luncheon. Even though it took many last minute changes and rehearsals we did it!

We were features at the annual Jazz Concert and used our Sixties medley and the big Elvis show. With only six in our group, this really put the pressure on each individual-but it turned out to be a great experience. I will miss all of you. Mrs. J

The Varsity finished the regular season with a 13-10 record. In regional competition the Trojans finished 10th out of 16 teams. Overall it was a very good season and start for this young team.

The Boys Basketball Program at Maroa-Forsyth had a very successful season this year. The varsity Team won their second Regional Title in the last three years. They ended the season with a heartbreaking loss at the buzzer to Sullivan High School in the IHSA Class A Tuscola Sectional Tourney. The Varsity finished with a 23-6 record. The Trojans were Macon County Champs, Meridian Conference Champs, IHSA Class A Regional Champs, and IHSA Class A Sectional Finalists. This was the first time in school history that the Trojans won all these titles in one season.

The baseball team finished the conference season undefeated, out-scoring their opponents 58-5. It was the seventh consecutive Meridian Championship for the Trojans and the fifteenth under Coach Thompson.

The Trojans also appeared to have the upper hand in the regional tournament after defeating Mahomet 8-0 and coming from behind to defeat Blue Ridge 8-7 in the semi-final game. The Trojans led Argenta 5-3 in the final inning with 2 on and 2 strikes on the hitter and 2 out before a double, a single, and an error in the outfield sent them to a heartbreaking 6-5 loss in the championship game. "Adam pitched a great game," said Thompson, "We just needed to have someone to go in the sixth and seventh inning when he tired and that someone was not available. It was an unfortunate turn of events but we had a fine season (18-6) and I commend our entire team for the way they fought until the last play of the final game."

The players selected to the 1st team All Conference were: Adam Hanes, brent McQueen, Bart Rose, and T.J. Jackson. 2nd team selections were: Cory Taylor, Travis Orr, and Chad Hunter.

The nucleus of the Trojan team will be returning next year and big things are expected from
